Marz Homes' Southcote Woodlands to open this weekend

Marz Homes is proud to announce the Grand Opening this weekend of their newest community, Southcote Woodlands in Ancaster.

Located at the Northwest corner of Southcote and Garner Roads, Southcote Woodlands is comprised of 44 exclusive, detached homes ranging from 1800-3600 sq. ft., with lots ranging from 35' to 50' and depths as much as 148 ft. The location is perfect for those who want to be surrounded by nature but who also want to have close proximity to major roadways and shopping centres.

"Ancaster is such a sought-after location, and the homes in Southcote Woodlands have the top quality and craftsmanship that our homebuyers have come to expect from Marz Homes," says Danny Gabriele, Vice President of Marz Homes. "We're really excited to release this new community, and we're looking forward to showcasing it for the first time this weekend in Ancaster."

Every home in the new Southcote Woodlands community will feature 9' ceilings on the main level, an upgraded lighting package, paved driveway and fully sodded yard. Pre-construction pricing includes various incentive packages up to $10,000, with prices for the homes starting in the $330s.
